

Headlines to think about ...

School Law and Technology

CED 555

Law-breaking should top your list of
'unacceptable uses'

September 1, 2001

How to survive public-records requests in the digital age

April 1, 2002

Student hacker destroys eMail and ADA records at online school

October 30, 2000

Microsoft aims to sink school software pirates

July 13, 2001

Don't let sunshine laws scorch
electronic board meetings

October 1, 2000

Caution: School Board eMails Often Are Public Records

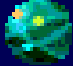

August 1, 2000

Private web forum snags school board

October 1, 2000

DA eyes agency's failure to release
school internet logs: Utah Education Network faces sanctions for overwriting data it was ordered to disclose

October 1, 1998

Feds pass school filtering mandate;
ACLU vows to sue

December 26, 2000

Free-speech groups sound off on CIPA in schools

September 19, 2002

Report: Filters alone won't protect kids online

May 6, 2002

No substitute for due diligence

August 1, 1998

Study: Most kids admit to stealing online content

May 19, 2004

FBI hits school, colleges
Ashcroft won't say what's behind raids

June 1, 2004

Debate Ensues over Turnitin.com

September 26, 2006

Schools grapple with policing students' online journals

February 1, 2006

MySpace Predator Sentenced

October 31, 2006

Teen Accused Of Impersonating Teacher On MySpace.com

October 26, 2006